CUMULATIVE SUBJECT INDEX

VOLUME 21

* Indicates original article.

ACHIEVEMENT MOTIVE
—in normal and mentally retarded children, 162
ADOLESCENCE
—concept of pseudopsychopathic schizophrenia in, 61
—family physician and delinquency in, 151
—suicide in, 161
AGED—See Old Age.
AGGRESSION
—treatment of hyperaggressive children with learning disturbances within social setting, 62
ALCOHOL
—effects of, plus chlorpromazine on coordination and judgment, 168
ALCOHOLISM
—brain damage from chronic, 251
—cerebellar dysfunction associated with chronic, 154
—chronic alcoholic, 153
—iproniazid in, 326
—occupational therapy in treatment of, 56
—physiologic basis of treatment of delirium tremens, 57
—psychotherapy of, 57
—therapeutic factors in Alcoholics Anonymous, 170
—treatment of postalcoholic syndrome with triflupromazine hydrochloride, 173
ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE
—statistical comparison of senile brain disease and, 31*
ANXIETY
—in electroshock therapy, meprobamate for, 114*
—manifest, and hostility in "criminally insane" patients, 41*
—treatment of, in general office practice, 106*
—trifluoperazine in, 285*
ARTERIES
—cerebrovascular disease, smaller intracerebral arteries, 73
ARTHRITIS
—neurologic symptoms and lesions in Reiter's disease, 72
ASTHMA
—psychosomatic aspects of, 64
ATARAXICS—See also Drugs and under specific drug.
—agranulocytosis caused by phenothiazine derivatives, 172
—chlorpromazine, triflupromazine, and prochlorperazine in chronic psychoses, 69
—clinical trial of five phenothiazines using sequential analysis, 89*
—drug-induced extrapyramidal symptoms, comparative study of three antiparkinsonian agents, 349
—fluphenazine and mentally retarded children with behavior disorders, 259
—influence of chlorpromazine on pathologic emotions and sexual unrest, 69
—meprobamate for anxiety in electroshock, 114*
—postalcoholic syndrome and triflupromazine hydrochloride, 173
—potentiating effect of alcohol on, and other central depressants, 171
—psychiatric physicians and phenothiazine ataraxics, 332
—reserpine-induced gastrointestinal hemorrhage, 172
—status of, 1959, 339
—trifluoperazine in anxiety reaction, 285*
—trifluoperazine in brain-damaged patients with severe behavioral disorders, 25*
—use and overuse of, 173
ATHETOSIS
—motor deficit in congenital bilateral, 75
ATTITUDE
—change of, in hospitalized psychiatric patients, 309*

BEHAVIOR
—antisocial character disorder, etiology and relationship to delinquency, 55
—episodic behavioral disorders, schizophrenia, and epilepsy, 158
—fluphenazine in treatment of mentally retarded children with behavior disorders, 259
—integration of man's inner antinomies, 257
—introduction to attitude psychology, 147*
—responses to Rorschach test that identify schizophrenic thinking, feeling, and behavior, 34*
—stress reactivity in relation to delinquent and psychopathic, 245
—trifluoperazine in brain-damaged patients with severe behavioral disorders, 25*
BLOOD
—agranulocytosis caused by phenothiazine derivatives, 172
—effect of norepinephrine and epinephrine on cerebral hemodynamics and metabolism, 345
—neurologic complications of leukemias and lymphomas, 344

—serum toxicity in various psychiatric disorders, 165

BODY TEMPERATURE
—effect of glutamic acid and glutamine on pyretogenic action of lysergic acid diethylamide, 7*

BOOK REVIEWS
—Analysis (The) of Dreams, 351
—Biology of Neurologia, 81
—Collected Papers (D. W. Winnicott), 352
—Criminal Mind (The), 276
—Current Trends in the Description and Analysis of Behavior, 277
—Discussions on Child Development, vol. 3, 80
—Education (The) of the Individual, 178
—Ego Structure in Paranoid Schizophrenia; A New Method of Evaluating Projective Material, 277
—Epilepsy Handbook, 79
—Genetic Field Theory of Ego Formation, 177
—Mental Subnormality: Biological, Psychological, and Cultural Factors, 351
—On Shame and the Search for Identity, 80
—Physiology (The) and Pathology of the Cerebellum, 179
—Principles of Perception, 274
—Psychoanalytic Study (The) of the Child, vol. 14, 350
—Rorschach (The) and the Epileptic Personality, 179
—Systematic Sociology: An Introduction to the Study of Sociology, 275
—Teaching (The) and Learning of Psychotherapy, 79

BRAIN
—cerebellar dysfunction and chronic alcoholism, 154
—cerebrovascular disease, smaller intracerebral arteries, 73
—changes in verbal transactions with induced altered brain function, 268
—clinical evaluation of trifluoperazine in brain-damaged patients with severe behavioral disorders, 25*
—damage to, from chronic alcoholism, 251
—effect of norepinephrine and epinephrine on cerebral hemodynamics and metabolism, 345
—emergency care of extradural hematoma, 78
—mental retardation and, 349
—observations on 100 cases of cerebral angioma, 76
—predictive validity of psychologic test of brain damage, 168
—serum toxicity in various psychiatric disorders, 165
—statistical comparison of senile brain disease and Alzheimer's disease, 31*
—strokes, diagnosis and treatment of, 71
—study of psychopathology of fetishism with reference to proposed disorder in brain mechanisms as etiologic factor, 335
—Swedenborg manuscripts, forgotten introduction to cerebral physiology, 345

CASTRATION COMPLEX
—female, 262

CATECHOLAMINE
—abnormal metabolism of, in basal ganglia diseases, 326

CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM—See also Brain; Nervous System; Spinal Cord.
—deep cerebral "localization" of tremor of Parkinson's disease, 272
—degenerative diseases: Korsakoff's psychosis, 272
—neurosurgical diagnostic evaluation of patient with cerebrovascular disease (stroke syndrome), 175
—psychological studies on effects of chemosurgery of basal ganglia in parkinsonism on intellectual function, 262
—sweat patterns and skin temperatures in patients with brain and spinal cord lesions, 176

CEREBROSPINAL FLUID
—clinical status and cerebrospinal fluid "total neuraminic acid," repeated observations on schizophrenic patients, 176
—polyneuritis with albuminocytologic dissociation in spinal fluid in systemic lupus erythematosis, 73

CHILDREN—See also Adolescence.
—achievement motive in normal and mentally retarded, 162
—changes of IQ in institutionalized mental defectives, 163
—effect of psychoneurosis in parent upon illness in child, 59
—fluphenazine in treatment of mentally retarded, with behavior disorders, 259
—metabolic studies in schizophrenia in, 161
—obsessions of infanticide, 155
—pediatrics and child psychiatry, 63
—phenylketonuria, further study, 331
—physiognomic, psychometric, behavioral, and neurologic aspects of phenylketonuria, 259
—planning occupational therapy for schizophrenic, 331
—schizophrenia in, role of family physician, 163
—treatment of hyperaggressive, with learning disturbances within social setting, 62

CHLORPROMAZINE
—in chronic psychoses, 69
—effects of, plus alcohol on coordination and judgment, 168
—effects of, on geriatric patients, 258
—electroconvulsive therapy and, in treatment of newly hospitalized schizophrenics, 101*
—follow-up study of patients treated with, 247, 264
—high-dosage therapy in acute and chronic schizophrenia, 340

—influence of, on pathologic emotions and sexual unrest, 69
—and schizophrenia, treatment with, 340
CHORDA TYMPANI SYNDROME
—further report on, 343
CIRCULATORY SYSTEM
—cerebrovascular disease, smaller intracerebral arteries, 73
—neurosurgical diagnostic evaluation of patient with cerebrovascular disease (stroke syndrome), 175
CONFLICT
—psychodynamic formulation of, 66
CONVERSION REACTION
—clinical study, 330
CONVULSIONS
—of spinal cord, 76
CONVULSIVE DISORDERS
—abnormal catecholamine metabolism in basal ganglia diseases, 326
—comparison of psychological test performance of patients with focal and nonfocal epilepsy, 334
—critical analysis of electrocorticography in temporal lobe epilepsy, 348
—episodic behavioral disorders, schizophrenia, and epilepsy, 158
—genetics of, 346
—paroxysmal compulsive running and concept of epilepsia cursiva, 346
—relationships among seizures, psychosis, and personality factors, 74
—treatment of narcolepsy with Ritalin, 74
CRIMINALS
—development of law of criminal responsibility in District of Columbia, 56
—filicide, 246
—manifest anxiety and hostility in "criminally insane" patients, 41*
—murdering mothers, 246
—psychiatric study of check offenders, 247
—"test" of criminal insanity, recent developments, 152

DELINQUENCY
—antisocial character disorder, etiology and relationship to, 55
—family physician and adolescent, 151
—stress reactivity in relation to delinquent and psychopathic behavior, 245
DELIRIUM TREMENS
—physiologic basis in treatment of, 57
DELUSIONS
—preliminary experiment on paranoid, 154
DEMENTIA
—pathology of insidious, following head injury, 274
DEPRESSION
—clinical evaluation of new monoamine oxidase inhibitor, phenelzine, in, 266
—clinical syndromes in, 156
—efficacy of iproniazid in, 265
—imipramine in treatment of, 339
—isocarboxazid in, 196*
—neurophysiologic aspects of, electromyographic study, 271
—psychoanalytic ideas applied to, 65
DIBENZYLINE
—clinical studies with, 293*
DRUGS—See also Ataraxics and under specific drug.
—attitudes toward use of placebos in treatment, 337
—chlorpromazine, reserpine, pentylenetetrazol, and placebo in geriatric patients, 258
—effect of glutamic acid and glutamine on pyretogenic action of lysergic acid diethylamide, 7*
—factor space D^2 analysis applied to the study of changes in schizophrenic symptomatology during chemotherapy, 187*
—iproniazid in alcoholism, 326
—new monoamine oxidase inhibitor, Phenelzine, in depression, 266
—pharmacodynamics and psychiatric investigation, 152
—potentiating effect of alcohol on ataraxics and other central depressants, 171
—Sernyl and sensory deprivation, 68
—sources of uncertainty in studies of drugs affecting mood, mentation, or activity, 68
—treatment of anxious patient in general office practice, 106*
—treatment of drug-induced extrapyramidal symptoms, comparative study of three antiparkinsonian agents, 349

ELATION
—psychoanalytic ideas applied to, 65
ELECTROSHOCK
—changes in verbal transactions with induced altered brain function, 268
—chlorpromazine and, in treatment of newly hospitalized schizophrenics, 101*
—meprobamate for anxiety in, 114*
EMOTION(S)
—emotional content of suicide notes, 59
—emotional disturbance in personal injury cases, 249
—gastric activity and, 165
—influence of chlorpromazine on pathologic emotions and sexual unrest, 69
—practical steps for family physician in prevention of emotional disorder, 60
—prenatal factors in intellectual and emotional development, 330
—responses to Rorschach test that identify schizophrenic thinking, feeling, and behavior, 34*
ENDOCRINE GLANDS
—problems of psychiatry and, 252
EPIDEMIOLOGY
—principles and methods of epidemiologic research and their application to psychiatric illness, 246
EPINEPHRINE
—effect of, on cerebral hemodynamics and metabolism, 345

EYE
—appraisal of positional nystagmus, 270
—ocular myopathy, clinical and electromyographic considerations, 271

FAMILY CARE
—efficacy of placement of neuropsychiatric patients in, 65
FETISHISM
—psychopathology of, with reference to proposed disorder in brain mechanisms as etiologic factor, 335
—clinical experience with, 129*
FLUPHENAZINE
—in treatment of mentally retarded children with behavior disorders, 259

GASTROINTESTINAL TRACT
—emotion and gastric activity, 165
—psychotherapy of infant with rumination, 164
—reserpine-induced gastrointestinal hemorrhage, 172
GENETICS
—of convulsive disorders, 346
GERIATRICS—See Old Age.
GILLES DE LA TOURETTE'S DISEASE
—intrafamily dynamics of, 344
—treatment of, 174
GROUP THERAPY
—social rehabilitation with emphasis on work therapy as form of, 336

HALLUCINATIONS
—effect of oral activity on, 256
—notes on hallucinogenic state, 327
—trifluoperazine and auditory, in schizophrenia, 264
HARTNUP DISEASE
—clinical and biochemical features in psychiatric practice, 328
HEADACHE
—treatment of premenstrual, 71
HEART FAILURE
—psychophysiologic approach to management of patients with congestive, 167
HEMIPLEGIA
—leg bracing in, 268
HEMORRHAGE
—emergency care of extradural hematoma, 78
—reserpine-induced gastrointestinal, 172
HEREDITY
—prenatal factors in intellectual and emotional development, 330
HODGKIN'S DISEASE
—intelligence and, 166
HOMOSEXUALITY
—homosexual panic, clinical and theoretical considerations, 60
HOSPITALS, PSYCHIATRIC
—attitudinal change in hospitalized psychiatric patients, 309*
—biometric evaluation of intensive treatment in state mental, 251
—changing nature of populations of state, 254
—current role of private, 249
—developments in day, 251
—discharges from, in relation to social class and other variables, 260
—educational techniques for rehabilitation of chronic schizophrenic patients, 261
—environmental therapy of chronic schizophrenic patients in, 67
—length of stay in, factors influencing, 248
—patient and staff reactions to change in procedure on psychiatric ward, 338
—psychiatric residents and family of hospitalized patient, 261
—relationship of expectation of improvement to actual improvement of hospitalized psychiatric patients, 337
—social factors and length of stay of schizophrenic patients, 248
—state, in transition, 250
—therapeutic response and length of hospitalization of psychiatrically ill veterans, 327
HOSTILITY
—manifest anxiety and, in "criminally insane" patients, 41*
HUNTINGTON'S CHOREA
—clinical studies, in Michigan, 347
HYDROCHLOROTHIAZIDE
—clinical studies on, 164
HYPERTENSION
—hydrochlorothiazide and, 164
HYPNOSIS
—psychophysiology of, 328

IMIPRAMINE
—treatment of depression with, 339
INDOLE EXCRETION
—tryptophan loading and, in childhood schizophrenia, 161
INFANTICIDE
—obsessions of, 155
INFANTS
—neurologic sequelae of pertussis in, with particular reference to mental defect, 342
—prenatal factors in intellectual and emotional development, 330
—psychotherapy of, with rumination, 164
INJURIES
—emotional disturbance in personal injury cases, 249
—pathology of insidious dementia following head, 274
INTELLIGENCE
—changes of IQ in group of institutionalized mental defectives, 163
—chemosurgery of basal ganglia in parkinsonism and, 262
—Hodgkin's disease and, 166
—prenatal factors in intellectual and emotional development, 330
IPRONIAZID
—therapy with, studied, 265

—treatment of alcoholism with, 326
—in treatment of depression, 265
ISOCARBOXAZID
—as adjuvant therapy in clinical psychiatry, 205*
—in treatment of depression, 196*

KORSAKOFF'S PSYCHOSIS
—psychological studies of, spontaneity and activity rate, 272

LEARNING
—treatment of hyperaggressive children with learning disturbances within social setting, 62
LEUKEMIA
—neurologic complications of, 344
LUPUS ERYTHEMATOSIS
—polyneuritis with albuminocytologic dissociation in spinal fluid in systemic, 73
LYMPHOMAS
—neurologic complications of, 344
LYSERGIC ACID DIETHYLAMIDE
—clinical studies with, 293*
—dual pursuit performance and, 300*
—effect of glutamic acid and glutamine on pyretogenic action of, 7*
—memory span for digits and, 11*
—side effects and complications of therapy with, 339

MANIC-DEPRESSIVE PSYCHOSIS
—factors in manic-depressive reactions, 255
MEDICOLEGAL PROBLEMS
—credibility of witnesses, 151
—development of law of criminal responsibility in District of Columbia, 56
—emotional disturbance in personal injury cases, 249
—medicolegal aspects of psychiatric research, 325
—mental illness and the law, 53
—pharmacodynamics and psychiatric investigation, 152
—psychiatric study of check offenders, 247
—"test" of criminal insanity, recent developments, 152
MENSTRUAL CYCLE
—treatment of premenstrual headache, 71
MENTAL DEFICIENCY
—achievement motive in normal and mentally retarded children, 162
—brain and mental retardation, 349
—changes of IQ in group of institutionalized mental defectives, 163
—fluphenazine in treatment of mentally retarded children with behavior disorders, 259
—neurologic sequelae of pertussis, with particular reference to mental defect, 342
MENTAL HOSPITALS—See Hospitals, Psychiatric.
MENTAL ILLNESS
—cutis anserina, significance in prognosis of mental illness, 164
—incidence of mental disease among refugees in Norway, 58
—law and, 53
—practical steps for family physician in prevention of emotional disorder, 60
—reversible and irreversible, 159
MEPROBAMATE
—for anxiety in electroshock therapy, 114*
METABOLISM
—abnormal catecholamine metabolism in basal ganglia diseases, 326
—effect of norepinephrine and epinephrine on cerebral hemodynamics and, 345
—hydrochlorothiazide and, 164
—metabolic studies in childhood schizophrenia, 161
—psychopathology of acute intermittent porphyria, 169
METHYL PHENIDATE HYDROCHLORIDE
—treatment of narcolepsy with, 74
MIGRAINE
—familial hemiplegic, 270
—observations on 500 cases of migraine and allied vascular headache, 343
MOTIVATION
—effects of motivating instructions on reaction time in schizophrenia, 333
—information input overload and psychopathology of, 335
—neurology of, 269
MUSCLES
—familial periodic paralysis, case resistant to dextrose and insulin provocation, 269
—motor deficit in congenital bilateral athetosis, 75
MYASTHENIA GRAVIS
—prolonged-action pyridostigmin bromide in treatment of, 78

NARCOLEPSY
—Ritalin in treatment of, 74
NECK
—further report on chorda tympani syndrome, 343
NERVES
—peripheral neuropathy after exposure to ester of dichlorophenoxyacetic acid, 273
—response of trigeminal neuralgia to "decompression" of sensory root, 72
NERVOUS SYSTEM—See also Central Nervous System.
—abnormal catecholamine metabolism in basal ganglia diseases, 326
—dysraphic states, 77
—heredofamilial mononeuritis multiplex with brachial predilection, 348
—Huntington's chorea in Michigan, 347
—intramedullary spinal cord metastasis, 347
—motor deficit in congenital bilateral athetosis, 75
—neurophysiologic variants in schizophrenia, 158

—neurologic symptoms and lesions in Reiter's disease, 72
—origin and spread of dementia paralytica, 177
—in seizures in neurosyphilis, 77
—treatment of disseminated sclerosis by sodium succinate, 75
NEURALGIA
—response of trigeminal neuralgia to "decompression" of sensory root, 72
NEURITIS
—heredofamilial mononeuritis multiplex with brachial predilection, 348
—polyneuritis with albuminocytologic dissociation in spinal fluid in systemic lupus erythematosis, 73
NEUROLOGY
—appraisal of positional nystagmus, 270
—cyclical head and face pain, 270
—familial hemiplegic migraine, 270
—further report on chorda tympani syndrome, 343
—Gilles de la Tourette's disease, 174, 344
—leg bracing in hemiplegia, 268
—of motivation, 269
—neurologic complications of leukemias and lymphomas, 344
—neurologic sequelae of pertussis, with particular reference to mental defect, 342
—neurologic symptoms and lesions in Reiter's disease, 72
—observations on 500 cases of migraine and allied vascular headache, 343
—ocular myopathy, clinical and electromyographic considerations, 271
—polyneuropathy following exposure to ester of dichlorophenoxyacetic acid, 273
NEUROSES—See also Psychoneuroses.
—parents of schizophrenics, neurotics, and normals, 157
—psychotherapeutic approach to neurosis in Pavlovian school, 170
NIALAMIDE
—clinical and toxicologic study of, 212*
NOREPINEPHRINE
—effect of, on cerebral hemodynamics and metabolism, 345
NURSING
—follow-up of discharged mental patients by public health nurse, 333

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
—for schizophrenic children, 331
—in treatment of alcoholism, 56
OLD AGE
—evaluation of certain drugs in geriatric patients, 258
—statistical comparison of senile brain disease and Alzheimer's disease, 31*
—trifluoperazine in chronic mental disorders in, 285*

PAIN
—cyclic, in head and face, 270
—psychologic aspects of, and relief of suffering, 334
—toward a theory of, 175
PARANOIA
—preliminary experiment on paranoid delusions, 154
PARENTS
—family patterns of illness, effect of psychoneurosis in parent upon illness in child, 59
PARKINSONISM
—deep cerebral "localization" of tremor of Parkinson's disease, 272
—intellectual functioning and chemosurgery of basal ganglia in, 262
—somatopsychologic studies in, relationship of disease factors to psychologic functions, 273
—treatment of drug-induced extrapyramidal symptoms, comparative study of three antiparkinsonian agents, 349
PEDIATRICS
—child psychiatry in, 63
PENTYLENETETRAZOL
—effects of, on geriatric patients, 258
PERSONALITY
—dynamics of, in torticollis, 63
—relationships among seizures, psychosis, and personality factors, 74
PERTUSSIS
—neurologic sequelae of, with particular reference to mental defect, 342
PHENELZINE
—in treatment of depression, 266
PHENOTHIAZINE
—agranulocytosis caused by phenothiazine derivatives, 172
—clinical trial of five phenothiazines using sequential analysis, 89*
—psychiatric physicians and phenothiazine ataraxics, 332
—toxicity of, extrapyramidal seizures and oculogyric crises, 263
β-PHENYLISOPROPYLHYDRAZINE
—psychoses and, 220*
PHENYLKETONURIA
—physiognomic, psychometric, behavioral, and neurologic aspects of, 259
—study of, in children, 331
PHYSICIANS
—attitudes of, toward use of placebos in treatment, 337
—general practitioner and psychiatrist, 255
PHYSIOLOGY
—neurophysiologic aspects of depressed states, electromyographic study, 271
—neurophysiologic variants in schizophrenia, 158
—physiologic basis of treatment of delirium tremens, 57
—physiologic reactions and psychiatric prognosis, 256
—psychophysiologic approach to management of patients with congestive heart failure, 167
—psychophysiology of hypnosis, 328

—Swedenborg manuscripts, forgotten introduction to cerebral physiology, 345
PLACEBOS
—attitudes toward use of, in treatment, 337
PORPHYRIA
—prolonged neuropsychiatric disability and cardiomyopathy in acute intermittent, 253
—psychopathology of acute intermittent, 169
PROCHLORPERAZINE
—in chronic psychoses, 69
PROPHYLAXIS
—practical steps for family physician in prevention of emotional disorder, 60
PSYCHIATRISTS
—attitudes of, toward use of placebos in treatment, 337
—general practitioner and, 255
—psychiatric physicians and phenothiazine ataraxics, 332
—psychiatric residents and family of hospitalized patient, 261
PSYCHIATRY
—acceptance of, by medical students, 332
—amine oxidase inhibitor as adjuvant therapy in clinical, 205*
—of children, pediatrics and, 63
—clarification of concept of "therapeutic community," 336
—clinical transformations in psychiatry and psychoanalysis, 61
—clinical trials in, 155
—contemporary conversion reactions, clinical study, 330
—endocrine considerations in, 252
—information input overload and psychopathology, 335
—medicolegal aspects of psychiatric research, 325
—objective method of determining psychiatric treatment, 315*
—office management of psychiatric problems, 59
—pharmacodynamics and psychiatric investigation, 152
—physiologic reactions and psychiatric prognosis, 257
—practitioners of, 67
—principles and methods of epidemiological research and their application to psychiatric illness, 246
—prolonged neuropsychiatric disability and cardiomyopathy in acute intermittent porphyria, 253
—psychiatric ecology, 166
—psychiatric rehabilitation, 266
—psychiatrogenic illness, 260
—psychodynamic formulation of conflict, 66
—significance of a dichotomy in clinical psychiatric classification, 255
PSYCHOANALYSIS
—clinical transformations in psychiatry and psychoanalysis, 61
—concept of psychic determinism, 171
—current problems in dynamic psychotherapy in its relationship to psychoanalysis, 167
—psychoanalytic ideas applied to elation and depression, 65
PSYCHOLOGY
—clinical experience with figure-drawing test, 129*
—introduction to attitude psychology, 147*
—practitioners of, 67
—predictive validity of psychologic test of brain damage, 168
—psychologic aspects of pain and relief of suffering, 334
—psychologic studies of Korsakoff's psychosis, spontaneity and activity rate, 272
—psychopathology of acute intermittent porphyria, 169
—psychophysiologic approach to management of patients with congestive heart failure, 167
—rhythms, cycles, and periods in health and disease, 157
—somatopsychologic studies in Parkinson's disease, relationship of disease factors to psychologic functions, 273
PSYCHONEUROSES—See also Neuroses.
—concept of nemesis in, 66
—family patterns of illness, effect of psychoneurosis in parent upon child, 59
—office management of psychiatric problems, 59
PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY
—stress reactivity in relation to delinquent and psychopathic behavior, 245
—relationship among seizures, psychosis, and personality factors, 74
—scotopic visibility in normals and psychotics, 231*
PSYCHOSOMATIC MEDICINE
—psychosomatic aspects of asthma, 64
—psychosomatic problems in rapidly growing suburb, 64
PSYCHOTHERAPY
—of alcoholism, 57
—comparison of group-centered and individual-centered activity program, 70
—current problems in dynamic psychotherapy in its relationship to psychoanalysis, 167
—difficulties of practice in, 173
—of infant with rumination, 164
—measurement of outcome in, 267
—patient as listener, 267
—practitioners of, 67
—psychotherapeutic approach to neurosis in Pavlovian school, 170
—study of, 341
PYRIDOSTIGMIN BROMIDE
—treatment of myasthenia gravis with prolonged-action, 78

REHABILITATION
—educational techniques for, of chronic schizophrenic patients, 261

—of psychiatric patient, 266
—social, with emphasis on work therapy as form of group therapy, 336
REITER'S DISEASE
—neurologic symptoms and lesions in, 72
RESERPINE
—in acute catatonic schizophrenia, 217*
—effects of, on geriatric patients, 258
—gastrointestinal hemorrhage induced by, 172
RITALIN
—treatment of narcolepsy with, 74
RORSCHACH TEST
—responses to, that identify schizophrenic thinking, feeling, and behavior, 34*

SCHIZOPHRENIA
—childhood, role of family physician in, 163
—chlorpromazine and electroconvulsive therapy in treatment of newly hospitalized schizophrenics, 101*
—clinical status and cerebrospinal fluid "total neuraminic acid," repeated observations on schizophrenic patient, 176
—concept of pseudopsychopathic, in adolescents, 61
—controlled study of relative effectiveness of chlorpromazine, promazine, phenobarbital, and placebo, 340
—educational techniques for rehabilitation of chronic schizophrenic patients, 261
—effects of motivating instructions on reaction time in, 333
—environmental therapy of chronic schizophrenic patients, application to mental hospital ward, 67
—episodic behavioral disorders, schizophrenia, and epilepsy, 158
—evaluation of maintenance medication in posthospital adjustment of 66 schizophrenic patients, 304*
—factor space D^2 analysis applied to the study of changes in schizophrenic symptomatology during chemotherapy, 187*
—families of patients with, 160
